

DR. SHARMA ZUBIN

Fortis Memorial Research Institute, Gurgaon, India

Dr Zubin Dev Sharma is a Senior consultant gastroenterologist at Fortis Memorial Research Institute. Previously he was In-Charge of GI Physiology lab at Medanta Medicity. He has a keen interest in Neuro-gastroenterology, GI Motility and Third-Space Endoscopy

- He is credited with initiation of Antro-duodenal Manometry and Colonic manometry in North India and currently one of few in India to perform these tests.
- He has developed newer innovative catheter for Antro-duodenal manometry called as KARE Catheter
- He is also trained in Endoscopic ultrasound by World Endoscopic Organizations WISE program and by Kitasato University at Tokyo, Japan.
- He was also nominated to attend the World Gastroenterology Organization's Train the Trainer program for faculty in Gastroenterology.
- He has also served as Treasurer for Society of Gastrointestinal Endoscopists of India (SGEI), the umbrella body for Interventional Endoscopists for three years from 2021 to 2024.
- He has been organizing secretary for various national conferences like ENDOCON 2024, IPBC 2023, EPL 2016 and 2023, 3rd Space Meet 2022, India Live 2021.
- He has more than 50 academic publications, guidelines and multiple book chapters in national and international journals. He is an invited faculty at most of national gastroenterology conference in the country.
- He also helped setup and initiate GI motility Labs at various centers in India including at KGMC Lucknow, Apollo Bhopal amongst others.
- He was awarded National Gold Medal in 2016 in DrNB Gastroenterology and also has Gold Medal in MD Medicine.
- He has also done MBA in health systems from prestigious BITS Pilani. He is an invited speaker at various national and international conferences.